

about the Yellow Page of Enterprise-Level Consultory Company

Dear students,

Your journey in Big Data is about to take a new step.

The Yellow Page of Enterprise-Level Consultory Company is now available, showcasing the seven most advanced Big Data and AI consulting firms in the world — organizations that stand beyond the traditional Big Four and lead global transformation through data, innovation, and AI mastery.

Each firm has its own identity, culture, and strategic focus.

Your task is simple: review the Yellow Page carefully and choose the consulting team you want to join.

This choice will shape your role in upcoming activities, projects, and challenges throughout the course.

Select the team that best aligns with your strengths, your interests, and the kind of professional you want to become.

Elite consulting firms available:

- Horizon — Explorers of tomorrow's possibilities
- Vertex — Precision, structure, and unmatched technical excellence
- Nexus — Masters of integration across systems, data, and people
- Pulse — Innovators of real-time intelligence and instant decision-making
- Aurora — Creators of visionary analytics and human-centered design
- Atlas — Architects of global-scale, resilient infrastructures
- Momentum — Strategists of speed, acceleration, and unstoppable execution

The doors are open.

The future is being built.

Now it's your turn to choose where you want to leave your mark.
